

Aligning medical education with health system needs

ISSUE: Numerous experts and reports have acknowledged that the current system of medical education is not aligned with societal needs.

KEY POINTS: The Commission will continue its discussion of ways to adjust medical education financing in the U.S. to support the delivery system reforms we need (with the optimal workforce in place) to improve the quality and efficiency of health care provision in this country.

ACTION: Commissioners should continue to discuss relevant policy options.

STAFF CONTACT: Cristina Boccuti (202-220-3705) and Craig Lisk (202-220-3742).