

Using premium support in Medicare

ISSUE: We will review a draft chapter on premium support that will be included in the Commission's June 2017 report.

KEY POINTS: The Commission will not make any recommendations about the use of premium support, but we will highlight some of the issues that the Congress would need to consider if it decided to develop such a system.

ACTION: Commissioners will discuss the material and implications for future analytic work.